Bright Skies + Campfire Nights

As the golden days of autumn settle across the Hilltops, there's no better time to slow down and take to the open road. This is the season for crisp nights, glowing campfires and skies so clear they feel endless... the kind where stars stretch right across the horizon and stories seem to come alive again around the fire.

Whether you're rolling in with a caravan or pitching a tent under the stars, the region is made for easy, welcoming stays. Wake up to soft sunrises spilling over rolling hilltops, mist rising from the river or the smell of coffee brewing in the cool morning air.

Along the way, take in sweeping views from Waterworks Lookout in Jugiong, Lions Lookout in Young and Tout's Lookout in Monteagle. Perfect for a pause, a photo, or simply soaking it all in. Caravan-friendly stops across the region make it easy to explore at your own pace, including Boorowa, Harden-Murrumburrah, Young, Jugiong, Koorawatha, Wombat and Murringo, each offering a warm country welcome and plenty to discover just steps from your campsite.

For those looking to linger longer, set up at local caravan parks in Boorowa, Harden and Young, or embrace a simpler escape at donation-based or free camping spots like Jugiong Recreation Grounds or Tout's Lookout. For something truly special, riverside camping along the Murrumbidgee offers quiet days of kayaking, fishing, swimming and wandering wide-open paddocks at Jarabin.

This is the Hilltops at its most wholesome. Grab your marshmallows and enjoy toasting them over crackling fires, share meals under the stars and tell campfire stories that bring a little piece of childhood back to life. So, pack the van, gather your people and take the slow road into autumn's final weeks for the year.

Your Winter Escape Starts Here

Fire season has truly begun, and there's nothing better than getting cosy in the cool of the Hilltops. This beautiful season is full of warm spaces with fireplaces in our heritage pubs, hearty winter meals and a good cuppa that feels all the more satisfying when the air outside is crisp.

As we head into June, the region slows into its winter rhythm...perfect for relaxed getaways, long lunches and warming reds shared by the fire. The June long weekend is shaping up to be a real treat, with plenty of reasons to rug up and head out to explore the Hilltops at its most inviting. We look forward to welcoming you to our gorgeous winter escape.
